Hon. H. O. Bursum don't seem to be afraid to take another fall out of that penitentiary matter, as he is now engaged in digging into it with considerable energy.

The new governor will arrive from the Philippines about the middle of July, and by that time the late war on the republican administration in the territory will be largely ancient history.

Secretary Reynolds seems to be capable of attending to the multiplicity of duties he had imposed upon him by the resignation of Governor Hagerman. We have heard no complaint so far.

Genuine summer time has come at last, the whole of the grass land of Quay county is covered with a carpet of green and the trees are putting on leaves again. The rains continue to come and the outlook for prosperity in Quay county could not be more flattering.

The republican party of New Mexico will be pleased to see Col. G. W. Prichard again in the office of Attorney General of the territory. The office was ably conducted during his term and the party feels that he is entitled to the honor.

It will likely make little difference whether the appointees under the Hagerman regime resign before Curry assumes office or not. We believe he may be trusted to take care of the situation when he arrives, and a trustworthy official will find him as reasonable as he is courageous.

This paper made the mistake last week of sending Dr. B. F. Herring to Chicago for a sub-graduate course in surgery instead of a post-graduate term, and then we followed that mistake up by betting the typo that he didn't follow copy when setting the notice, and there is the rub. He insists on the ten.

We notice that the state of Colorado has raised $100,000.00 for the purpose of advertising her agricultural resources. That looks like enterprise. The Tucumcari News is doing a like piece of work for Tucumcari, Quay county and Northeast New Mexico. The Tucumcari Printing Co., which publishes the News, is spending $1000.00 to get out an advertising edition of the paper, which will advertise this particular locality. If the territory would do this work in every community as the News is doing in this, it would represent a large sum of money and would likely be more than is being expended in Colorado. If the business men and citizens of other communities of New Mexico were as enterprising as we are here in Tucumcari this would be done.

CLUB ORGANIZATION IN THE IMBRYO.

Tuesday afternoon as many of the business men as could easily be gotten together met at the offices of the Jackson-Galbraith-Foxworth Lumber Co., and took the initiatory steps in the organization of a social club. A. D. Goldenberg was selected as chairman and W. J. Hargis secretary. The following persons were present:

A. D. Goldenberg, J. A. Street, S. M. Wharton, W. B. Jarrell, Rev. W. H. DuBose, Earl George, Chas. T. Chenault, M. C. Meehem, W. A. Jackson, W. F. Buchanan, Dr. H. D. Nichols, G. W. Evans, Jr., C. H. Chenault, Wm. J. Hargis, T. Hardy Sanders, N. V. Gallegos, and C. L. Shelton.

Committees on membership, finance, location and constitution and by-laws were appointed and on motion the gentlemen present were made charter members of the organization. Following the adoption of constitution and by-laws the club will get to work to secure membership and a home for its future meetings. The objects as outlined by those who are promoting the enterprise is purely social, where membership can meet and mingle in a social way. And, also where they may take their friends and visitors for such entertainment as may be expected from a club of this character. A suite of rooms must be had and a committee is appointed for the purpose of securing if possible a home for the club in some of the new business blocks now under construction, and if that fails, to ascertain the practicability of building for the organization.

The committees will meet again next Tuesday evening at the offices of the lumber company and all charter members are requested to be present, as the perfecting of the organization is an important matter.
